

1. Create a view from the employee table having employee's name, address, birthdate, and sex.
2. Create a view from Employee table having following attributes ename, esrno, salary, mgrsrno, dno.

Names should be in sorted order.

3. Create a view from Employee table having following attributes Ename as Name, bdate as DOB, esrno, salary, mgrsrno, dno Only dept 1 & 3 employees should appear in the view.
4. Create a view from Employee table having following attributes esrno as eid, dno, salary as sal, comm. (45% of salary).
5. Create a view from Employee table having following attributes ename (initial capital letter), yob (year of dbate), sex as gender, address as addr.
6. Create a view from dept_location table having following attributes Dnumber as dnum, dlocation as dloc(all capital letter).
7. Create a view from Employee & Department table having following attributes ename, esrno, mgrsrno, salary, dnumber, dname.
8. Create a view from Employee & dept_location having following attributes ename, esrno, bdate, dno, dlocation.
9. Create a view from works on table having following attributes esrno, time (sum of hours of an employee).
10. Create a view from Employee, department, project, dept_location table having following attributes esrno, ename, dno, dname, dlocation, pnumber, pname, plocation.
11. Create a view from Employee table having following attributes ename, esrno, salary as esal, mgrsrno, mgrname (manager's name), msal (manager's salry).
12. Insert a record into the view created in q6 having the following data dnumber=5, dlocation="Mancheswar".